

SCOTLAND

Álvaro, Andrada,
Alex & Abel

History

- The people who first arrived Scotland were Celts.
- It has influences from Romans despite not being invaded.
- Scottish roots come from Vikings. They arrived in the British Isles in the 11th century.
- Now it belongs to Great Britain with Wales and England.

Culture

- ◉ The most famous meal from this country are salmon beef and Scotch Broth.
- ◉ Peter Pan is one of the most famous books written by Matthew Barrie.
- ◉ Folk and Gaelic music stand out from other musics.

Traditions and Customs

Traditions and customs

Traditions and customs

Festivities

- There are two important festivities in Scotland.
- Up-Helly-Aa.

- Hogmanay: Scottish new year.
- A very famous commemoration of the Scottish new year.

Places to visit

- Glencoe.

Historic and atmospheric, the site of Scotland's most infamous massacre.

◉ Loch Ness

Stretching for 23 miles and surrounded by incredible villages, mountains and the ruins of Urquhart Castle, no wonder the elusive Nessie decided to take up residence here.

The Kelpies

These two mystical horse heads tower over the Forth and Clyde canal near Falkirk and are the largest equine sculptures in the world.

Things to do

- ◉ If you go to scotland you have to try haggis. Is warm, moist, meaty and spicy.
- ◉ And also try the whisky.

Heavy contests, including the hammer throw and weight for height, see competitors putting their muscles to the test, while field events such as the hill race and cycling competition test speed and stamina.

For many, one of the most memorable sights of the Highland games is the massed bands, when hundreds of pipers and drummers from different groups come together to play and march in unison.

Edinburgh castle

Perched high on an ancient craggy stronghold overlooking the capital city, Edinburgh Castle is the most popular paid tourist attraction in the country and home to some impressive exhibits including the Crown Jewels and the Stone of Destiny.

SCOTISH TOURIST ROUTE

- Edimburgo
- Glasgow
- Skye
- Loch Ness
- Inverness
- Aberdeen

The background features a diagonal gradient from white to blue, with a thin grey diagonal line crossing the entire frame from the top-left to the bottom-right. The text 'The end' is centered in a black, sans-serif font.

The end